

Merchant Advisory Services

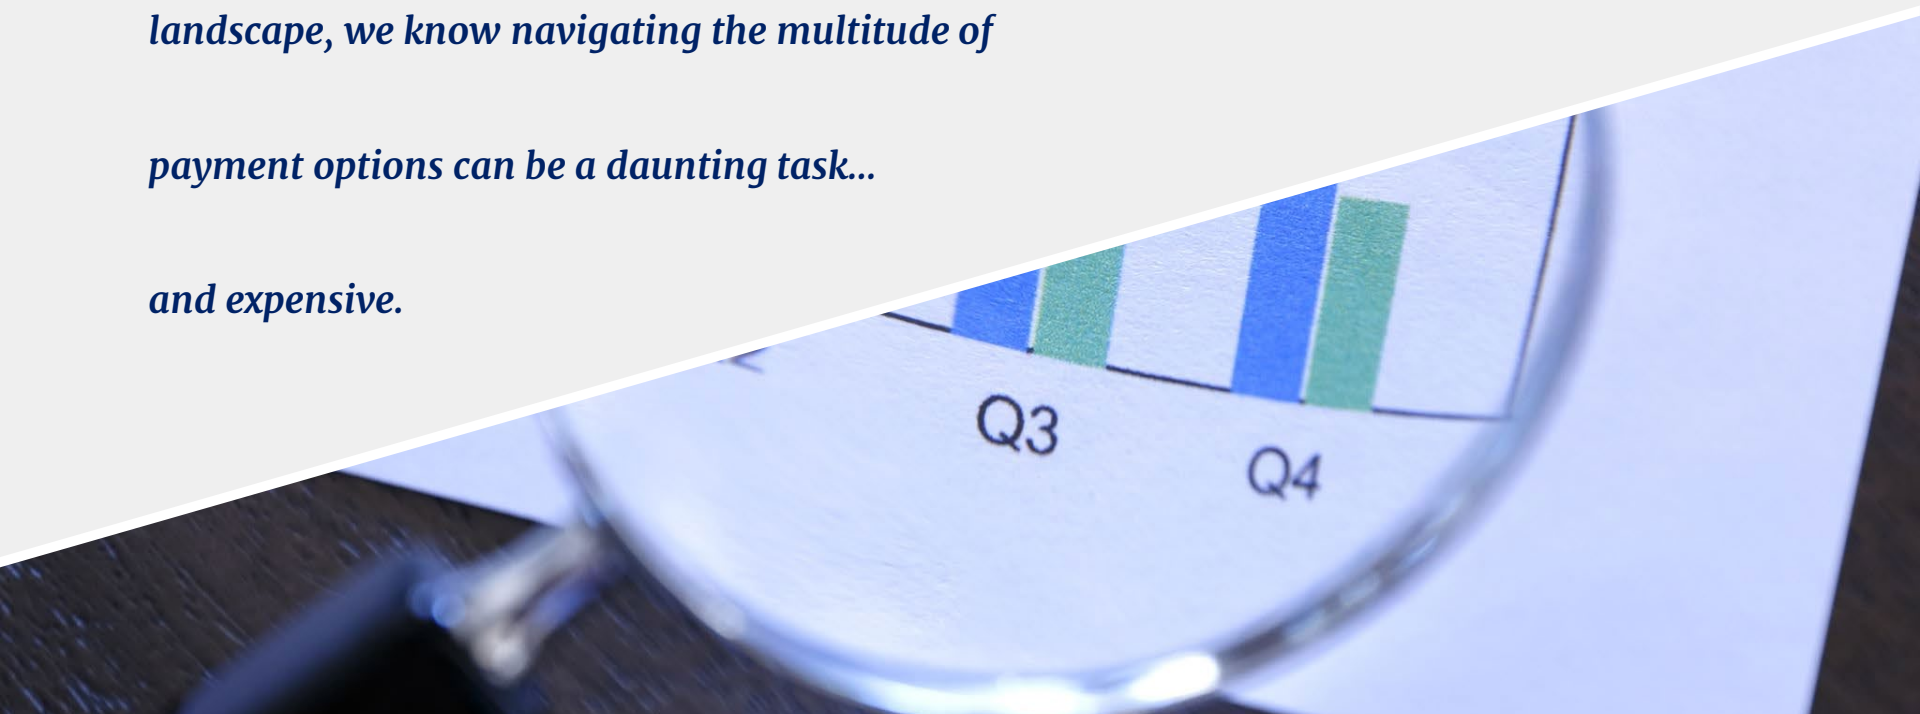

Your Trusted Payments Partner

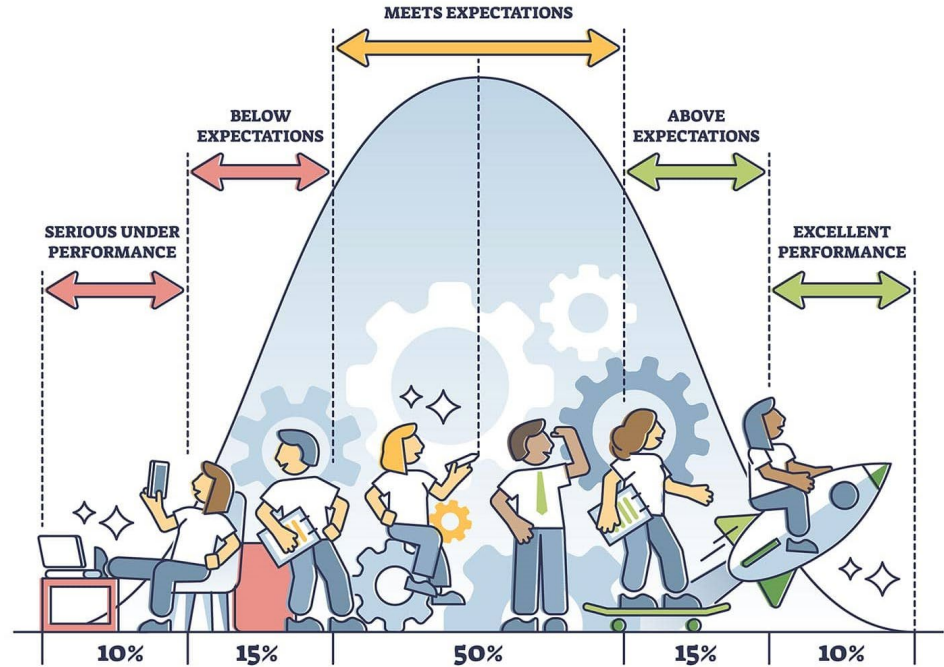

MerchantAdvisoryServices.com

Dear Business Owner,

*In today's complex and fast-moving financial landscape, we know navigating the multitude of payment options can be a daunting task...

Staying on the front end of the bell curve, enables us to provide clients with the most relevant information, empowering them to make informed decisions with all the available pricing plans while mitigating long term risk exposure.

By leveraging our deep understanding of the payment industry with an extensive network of merchant service providers, we offer clients a clear & comprehensive view of all opportunities to maximize profits & lower expenses.

Our personalized services are tailored to meet each client. We provide measurable savings by optimizing merchant account fee schedules to improve cash flow while streamlining all point of sale systems and online customer checkout experiences.

Managing the expenses of processing payments requires an understanding of the various types of credit & debit cards presented and the cost for accepting those cards.

With our deep understanding of merchant accounts, we are able to analyze data to create an optimized fee schedule that lowers overall costs which allows for more sales to be retained as profits.
